STATUS:

Incarcerated in 2012 at the age of 43
Hometown: Philadelphia, PA

My Past Life, Prior to Incarceration:

I was born in Philadelphia, PA where I attended public schools. My highest level of education is the tenth grade. I was able to accomplish so much without a diploma and was studying to take the G.E.D. exam prior to incarceration. I became a Muslim in 1991 and still a believer.

I'm the youngest of eight sisters and five brothers. I have a host of friends. I'm a loner and not a follower. I'm a positive person. I've made some good choices in life as well as bad ones but I learned from all my choices.

My participation in community service activities were feeding the homeless and buying school supplies for children to go back to school.

I worked at various jobs including but not limited to:

- Quarter Master, Philadelphia Airport
- Whitman Chocolate Company
- Breyers Ice Cream Company
- Nabisco/Kraft Food Company

My accomplishments were:

- Having my first child and watching him grow, graduate from High School (getting what I didn't have), him going out on his own, and becoming a homeowner.

My Present Life of Incarceration:

Coming to prison was an eye opening. It saved my life. In prison, I'm able to be me, at peace, humble and able to get closer to God. I face many trials in prison but I stay humble and learn from them and they have made me stronger.

Accomplishments:

- Church volunteer
- Good work report for kitchen duties
- Detail worker and maintenance for 5 years
