

SHEENA KING

Sheena holds an Associate's Degree in Religious Education, a Bachelor's in Christian Counseling, and a Master's Degree, Summa Cum Laude, in Pastoral Ministry.

She is also a published author of Submerged, a memoir; 3 Sum; and Unheard Soul. She is the mother of 2 children, 3 grandchildren, and is from the Philadelphia area.

She has been incarcerated for over 33 years at SCI Muncy, where she works as a Certified Peer Support Specialist and volunteers as a Mentor of the program she created, a facilitator for VOICE (Victims of Inappropriate Childhood Experiences) Group, facilitator for the New Commits Adjustment Group, and a Volunteer Hospice Worker. She also leads a weekly Bible Study.

She said she is driven and motivated to serve God by helping in the healing process for those who are hurting because this is what she needed for herself and for those that she has harmed. Everything she does is in