THE WOMAN I AM NOW:

If I had the tools that I have now at the time of the crime that sentenced me to life, I wonder what my life would have been like. It is my hope that society sees that I have something to contribute. I don't want others to make the same mistakes I have. And I would like to have the opportunity to prevent. I remain hopeful that the laws will change and even if I don't get the chance to be free, I hope that other's will.
