STATUS

Incarcerated at the age of 48 in 2013
Hometown: Philadelphia

Since I just started my life sentence I am currently on the waiting list for groups, programs and classes. I do my best to surround myself with positive women who are also serving life without parole at SCI Muncy. I strive to be at peace and gain insight on how to positively manage the years I may have to be imprisoned.

I have the support of my family which gives me strength and hope. Currently I am handicapped and I get around in a wheelchair

HEALTH REPORT

Three years ago, I had a mammogram. I was told there is something on my breast but I've had no follow up. I have muscular dystrophy and do not receive medication for pain. I have a hole in my hip and get no help.
